This has been my second trip with trips n tales. I did turkey with them. The trip was filled with lot of activities and varied experiences and landscape at each place. The itinerary pretty much sums up everything that you must do in Turkey. My highlight of the trip was turkish night and suluada island. Staying in cave hotel in Cappadocia is an experience in itself. And of course you meet amazing co travelers and locals on the trip which is the cherry on the cake.

My trip to turkey was great. Here is my feedback for each place:

Istanbul:

- the city has a great vibe. The hotel was at the perfect location with all tourist attractions at walking distance. -Activities covered in Istanbul like pub crawl, walking tour, bosphorus cruise were good. It would be better if we had a local guide for visiting balat.
- The hotel can give better breakfast if we are leaving early morning.

Cappadocia:

- Turkish night was the best. Great food and great cultural experience and lot of entertainment.
- Enjoyed both atv and horse tour as it covered different locations.
- cave hotel was lovely.

Overall Cappadocia was great.

- can have hotels to check out late.

Antalya:

Overnight bus journey was not as uncomfortable as I thought. We reached on time. Got check in within 2 hours after reaching.

- location of hotel was good but the hotel could be better. The staff was not very cooperative.
- pamukkale is overrated but if you are going to turkey once then might as well do it. Food at pamukkale could be better.
- suluada Island Boat Party was amazing. Loved the blue water and had a blast dancing on the boat.

Overall turkey has been a great experience.
